

STATUTES FOR QUALITY ENHANCEMENT CELL

THE WOMEN UNIVERSITY
MULTAN

Statutes for Quality Enhancement Cell

The main purpose of QEC is to maintain and oversee quality education practices. Its objectives are:

1. To promote public confidence that the quality and standards of the award of degrees are enhanced and safeguarded.
2. To review quality standards and the quality of teaching and learning in each subject area.
3. To define clear and explicit standards as points of reference to the reviews to be carried out.
4. To develop qualifications framework by setting out the attributes and abilities that can be expected from the holder of a qualification, i.e. Bachelors, Bachelors with Honors, Master's, M Phil and Doctoral.
5. To develop program specifications in order to clarify what knowledge, understanding, skills and other attributes a student's needs to develop on successful completing a program.
6. To develop quality assurance processes and methods of evaluation to affirm that the quality of provision and the standard of awards are being maintained and to foster curriculum, subject and staff development, together with research and other activities.
7. To ensure that the university's quality assurance procedures are designed to fit in with the arrangements in place nationally for maintaining and improving the quality of Higher Education.

To develop procedures for the following:

- Annual monitoring and evaluation including program monitoring, faculty monitoring, and student's perception
- Departmental review
- Student feedback
- Employer feedback
- Quality assurance of Master's, M Phil and PhD. degree Programs
- Curriculum review
- Approval of new programs
- Institutional Performance Evaluation
- Program specifications
- Qualification framework

Designed & Printed at:
University Printing Press, The Women University Multan.