

Dr. Abida Aziz

Head of Department | HEC Approved PhD Supervisor

Department of Botany, The Women University, Multan, Pakistan

✉ abida.6363@wum.edu.pk | ✉ amberuaf2010@gmail.com

Professional Summary

Accomplished academic leader and researcher in Botany with over a decade of experience in higher education, research supervision, and institutional administration. Proven track record of scholarly output (30+ publications), mentorship (5 PhD & 31 MPhil students), and active participation in national/international academic forums. Recognized for entrepreneurial research and startup initiatives, committed to advancing scientific education and innovation.

Academic Qualifications

- PhD in Botany | University of Agriculture, Faisalabad (2008–2014)
HEC Indigenous PhD Scholarship Awardee (2009–2014)
- MPhil in Botany | University of Agriculture, Faisalabad (2004–2006)
Merit Scholarship for MPhil (2004–2006), UAF

Professional Experience

- Assistant Professor | Mar 2017 – Present | Department of Botany, The Women University, Multan
- Assistant Professor | Jan 2015 – Jan 2017 | University of Lahore, Sargodha Campus

Administrative Leadership

- Deputy Director, Office of Research, Innovation & Commercialization (ORIC)
- Daycare Incharge, The Women University, Multan
- Focal Person, National Vocational & Technical Training Commission (NAVTTTC)
- Internal Examiner for MS/MPhil/PhD Comprehensive Exams & Viva Voce
- Serve on key university committees including Doctoral Program Committee and Board of Studies

Research & Academic Engagement

- Publications: 30+ peer-reviewed research articles
- Research Grants: Secured 1 competitive research grant
- Conferences/Workshops: 50+ participations at national & international levels
- Innovation Outreach: Organized and participated in 5 STARTUP EXPO events